

CLOZE TEST

Write the words in the sentence they are best suited to.

fawned

nimbly

scampered

floundering bounded leech

lope

obstinate lark

agility

1. My cousin, who I hadn't seen in years, _____ across the airport and into my arms.
2. The mice _____ across the empty hallway.
3. I thought going hiking would be a _____ but I soon realised it was far more gruelling than I had anticipated.
4. The magician's fingers moved _____ over the playing cards.
5. She ran at a full run or a _____, moving gracefully and effortlessly between the trees.
6. The baby clung to her mother like a _____, her fingers tightly gripping her shoulders.
7. The heptathlete had flown through the first few competitions but was _____ by the time of the last event.
8. The hyenas _____ over Scar in the hope of receiving special treatment when he became king.
9. The gymnast propelled herself into the air, spun three times and landed beautifully, in an impressive display of _____.
10. Their elderly father was _____ about staying in his own home and refused to even consider moving.

CLOZE TEST

Write the words in the sentence they are best suited to.

fawned	nimbly	scampered	floundering
bounded	leech	lope
obstinate	lark	agility

1. My cousin, who I hadn't seen in years, bounded across the airport and into my arms.
2. The mice scampered across the empty hallway.
3. I thought going hiking would be a lark but I soon realised it was far more gruelling than I had anticipated.
4. The magician's fingers moved nimbly over the playing cards.
5. She ran at a full run or a lope, moving gracefully and effortlessly between the trees.
6. The baby clung to her mother like a leech, her fingers tightly gripping her shoulders.
7. The heptathlete had flown through the first few competitions but was floundering by the time of the last event.
8. The hyenas fawned over Scar in the hope of receiving special treatment when he became king.
9. The gymnast propelled herself into the air, spun three times and landed beautifully, in an impressive display of agility.
10. Their elderly father was obstinate about staying in his own home and refused to even consider moving.