

CLOZE TEST

Select the word in brackets that would best complete each of the sentences below.

1. The cat gave me a look of _____ and sauntered off.
(scorned, disdain, contemptuous)
2. I thought my brother would be ecstatic to be chosen for the national football team but he was very _____ about the whole thing. (eminent, nonchalant, neutral)
3. I'd say I'm a _____ tennis player but I'm certainly not brilliant. (competent, equidistant, illustrious)
4. My grandfather isn't an _____ person so he'd probably feel uncomfortable if I gave him a hug. (hostile, affectionate, eloquent)
5. There's a nasty girl at school that treats me as if I'm _____ to her just because I don't wear designer clothes. (worse, superior, inferior)
6. The student was chosen to be Head Boy because he was a _____ example of how a Year Six should behave. (maximum, multitude, prime)
7. I attended a chess academy over the summer as I wanted to _____ my skills. (perfected, hone, tarnish)
8. The newspaper claimed that the actor was often rude to his co-workers, which _____ his impeccable reputation. (decayed, tarnished, perfected)

CLOZE TEST

Select the word in brackets that would best complete each of the sentences below.

1. The cat gave me a look of disdain and sauntered off.
(scorned, disdain, contemptuous)
2. I thought my brother would be ecstatic to be chosen for the national football team but he was very nonchalant about the whole thing. (eminent, nonchalant, neutral)
3. I'd say I'm a competent tennis player but I'm certainly not brilliant. (competent, equidistant, illustrious)
4. My grandfather isn't an affectionate person so he'd probably feel uncomfortable if I gave him a hug. (hostile, affectionate, eloquent)
5. There's a nasty girl at school that treats me as if I'm inferior to her just because I don't wear designer clothes. (worse, superior, inferior)
6. The student was chosen to be Head Boy because he was a prime example of how a Year Six should behave. (maximum, multitude, prime)
7. I attended a chess academy over the summer as I wanted to hone my skills. (perfected, hone, tarnish)
8. The newspaper claimed that the actor was often rude to his co-workers, which tarnished his impeccable reputation. (decayed, tarnished, perfected)